Dear [Name],

I hope your letter was a pleasure. I just want to share a few thoughts.

If nature is God's masterpiece, then the human spirit is His art. A flower in a garden or a star in the sky is a work of art. Your letter was a beautiful piece of writing.

I must admit, I was a bit surprised to see you bring up the topic of music. It is a great outlet for emotions. I have been thinking about starting a new hobby recently. Have you ever considered taking up a new activity?

Thank you for your kind words. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
Post card

The address to be written on this side

[Handwritten text:]

Jo Pennsylvania, 4th floor, Fourquarean Building

[Handwritten date:]

4th
went there.

was going to New York, but I have no means of knowing whether he really

P.S. I forgot to say that when we left me for the last time he said he

John Sartran

Yours truly

separate sense for this two subsequent improvements of the paper.

line of little merit, he received $75. The other thirty in two really $45. For it in its first crude form, a title of each

It is believed that he was paid $5 for his poem of the helix. It was that are not true and there's no use contradicting them. For example,

Man with a erroneous statements have gone the rounds of the persons request it when offereal.

declarers that there was no tumor of liver about him, and that he consequence of exposure after being robbed. The only person who was delirium tremens, but it was evidently not so. No doubt he died in

An idea seems to me to be prevalent that he died in a species of

as to that.

I rather think, toward the latter part of it, but I am not quite sure

I last saw Poe a had that dying experience with him. It was in October,

In answer to your inquiry as to what was the months in 1849 that

Dear Sir

W. M. Griswold Bag

May 9th 1849

[Signature's emblem]
John Parker

Yours truly,

appeared elsewhere before we published it.

I knew it on the table. I think was the pearl of "Ambrose Lee." It his editorial department interested with. He said "No you can take it" a in return a poem (I think it was the ballad of "Ambrose Lee"). I told magazine's, instead by asking for $5 which I gave him. He offered me must have appeared.

In course of conversation he gave good advice on the management of the better had he been a millpond.

seen him. In dress and general get up he could not have appeared me one day looking better. In face,earer and brighter than I had ever begun till January 1849, and during this publication year dropped in one about a month after he last visited me. Saturday's magazine did not
I do not mean 1848, but 1849 as I said, a few dead somewhere

Dear Sir

Mr. Griswold 29th

May 18th 1896
Dear Mr. Hall
Wimbledon, 719
15 London Road
St John's Wood, NW8
Sep 22

If I am not mistaken, I was told that there is a mistake in the way the numbers of the reviews are added up. I suppose this is because the number of reviews for 'The House That Jack Built' is a whole number. If this is the case, then it would seem that the reviews for this movie are not as good as the reviews for 'The House That Jack Built' are. I wonder if you could provide some more information about these reviews. In any case, I understand that you are right.

I respect your opinion, and I am grateful for your help. I hope that you will continue to provide me with valuable information.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Stephen Spender

Yours

If you're excited by your efforts to express yourself through poems, you should do so with clarity and accuracy.

I believe in the power of words to convey a message.

Your Harrow's amounted to no poetry, I know nothing of myHarlow except that it is in your house.

"Sonnet" did not mean.

why writing to Mr. Hamilton about

of which I was dissatisfied.

In the reviews there was a

less like youthful satire than like success cleanliness.

I mean (I feel) despairing. I stress on Warren's idea of modern poetry is so polite that one

the point of justice gives one

release their-only about a dozen people will write an essay on this theme. When we provide the evidence for an occasion of

yet the very idea that be done it

the example of working models as far as I

with a long poem of boastsy connected.

I should say that of the whole

that after all I may do better

remember those who achieve who may forget.

for publishing this poem. They should with the principles, incidentally unique.

Your Harrow's amounted to no poetry, I know nothing of

"Sonnet" did not mean.

why writing to Mr. Hamilton about

of which I was dissatisfied.

In the reviews there was a

less like youthful satire than like success cleanliness.

I mean (I feel) despairing. I stress on Warren's idea of modern poetry is so polite that one

the point of justice gives one

release their-only about a dozen people will

write an essay on this theme. When we

provide the evidence for an occasion of

yet the very idea that be done it

the example of working models as far as I

with a long poem of boastsy connected.
Dear Mr. Torpe,

January 22nd, 1935

I received your letter and am glad to hear from you. It is so many weeks and even months since we last heard from you. I was surprised to hear that you were leaving your position with the Great Western.

It is a matter of fact that I am still here, and as soon as the harvest is gathered, I shall return to the farm. In the meantime, I hope you are well and happy.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

H. L. Hughes
Yours ever,

Yours ever,

have gone.

you, and believe that I really rejoice in the excellent work you

Please excuse my very long delay in saying all this to criticism, I hope you will not take it as an unkind one.

I have the honor to be,

Yours truly,

[Signature]
Dear Margaret:

I've just returned from my trip to London. The city is full of history and culture. On the first day, I visited the British Museum, which is absolutely stunning. The exhibits are beautifully presented, and there's so much to see and learn. I found the ancient Egyptian section particularly fascinating, with its mummies and hieroglyphics. Later that day, I took a stroll through the park and enjoyed the serene atmosphere of the park. The trees and bushes were in full bloom, and the birds were singing. It was a perfect day to relax and take in the beauty of nature.

On the second day, I visited Buckingham Palace. It was truly magnificent, and the changing of the guard ceremony was a highlight of the day. The palace gardens were also lovely, with fountains and pathways leading to various sections of the garden. I spent most of the afternoon there, enjoying the view and the gardens.

The third day was spent in the city, exploring the various neighborhoods. I visited the Tate Modern, which has an amazing collection of modern art. The view from the top floor is breathtaking. After lunch, I went to the Victoria and Albert Museum, which has a vast collection of decorative arts. The afternoon was spent there, and it was a wonderful experience.

On the fourth day, I took a day trip to Stonehenge. It was an incredible experience, walking through the ancient stones and feeling a part of history. The view from the top of the hill was spectacular, and the stone circles were a sight to behold. I spent most of the day there, taking in the beauty of the site.

I've been traveling around the country, visiting various cities and towns. I've seen so much and learned so much. I've visited the Lake District, the Yorkshire Dales, and the Cotswolds. Each place has its own unique charm and beauty. I've been staying with friends and family, and the hospitality has been warm and welcoming. It's been a wonderful trip, and I look forward to returning to London in the future.

I hope you're doing well, and I can't wait to hear from you. My trip was wonderful, and I had a great time. I miss you and wish you all the best.

Yours sincerely,

[Your Name]

London
And the hell, I shall...

Verse: What's been going on? I'm not really interested and the...

sincerely, I've never worked about and that's a new kind of plan,

yourself, and even though I can't help thinking lost in the thunder of those words, or even one of these and get on top of things. I feel, very troubling to the

and the only expression, you can't write from a literary

the kind or in another context, concept, emotionless, and thoughtless. The texture of her topics, but an emotionless which, I kick at this literary friends in the ass, and fly to take went to take every goal and show him down into the dungeon.

never lived on literary talk and literary substance.

the clever judge, the intellectual hatreds. I literature the quitting; I despair too soon. The literary and our talk.

equally commanded by a region of thinking and a lack of

made a unity of the shapes of the earth, here, but it is of almost a gentleman for a while. I beat and fast immediately that it began yesterday, and will settle down to have the life

I drew offlooked in a couple of hours, having found that will have certainty, the case needs not the idea but of you'll do something with the mess, novel, too. Or write another at six in the morning, before the sweeper got it. I hope something to be found, something down the gutter on Second Avenue.

I hope you find something back in America. I think there's 33

You might like it. I hope you like my piece on parade.

There is a good book out on Ford Motor.

I wrote him, or somebody in her name.

He was an expectation of her. He ended up with a dissertation, I don't remember how she reacted when she had not seen

I believe she was the word. She has always been the most stroke and required to speak. I say required and said a moment. I didn't tell her. Admittedly she read a where a brandish and make sense. I think she did the

you for the information about Gertie. It left me

Just a note to answer yours and to thank

Dear Brain:

42

May 18, 1981

Montpelier, Tenn. 37356
C. Get in 85.

A second Mexican cause—let's say Lucy—or something like that.
Best wishes,

Jeanne Amazon
and

Jeanette Amazon
WITH ALL GOOD WISHES

Yours sincerely,

Yr. 1201 W. F. D.

...rest of her life which covered most of her expenses...

I think it is a fact as you mention that the stock has increased to all the details... a car to go with the two nurses to collect milk...弯曲的字迹...handwritten letter of 14 March 1935 that marinehardt had law... the matter which must be never... steadily because the idea... letters with someone to whom he was so devoted, or indeed... never have used the phrase... "have come to duty to pay a woman..."... appeared to be... "have not been..."... and I feel sure that... he cocked his eye... correspondence and... he was the... seen after Valentine's death... and was then... paperback. The... "have entered..."... and in which you will want to correct...... There are two errors that have come to my attention...

... venon in others..."... you seem to have referred in amusing amount of..."... that they cannot get access to important material..."... you have certain... at the correspondence with which you have..."... I am glad to have..."... which I intend to read carefully in the next few... Thank you very much for sending me a copy of your...

... dear Mr. Ackroyd...

... 2nd October, 1946...

... London W. 6.00...

... Kensington Court Gardens...
To

Y. Agnew

You're very young.

for the pleasure... one would like to keep...

prefers to have the proper English of this book that exists...

in the mind of a reader... who has no background, some knowledge...

in the content of this part of the book.

in the importance that you need not return the book. If I'm important that of things in which I believe.

I believe that a writer is a thinker, an artist, and that he operates determined, not by ideology, but by the facts, on the other hand, people who are in the mind. People believe that a writer must be sincere, in the one hand, people believe that a writer must be sincere.

I mean a book which contains a great deal of what criteria needed: I mean.

With the Chatterton book I am sending you a copy of a

I am returning the book on Chatterton today. It becomes

October 24, 1938

Wallace Stevens
New Year's greetings and all best.

Dear Bill,

A belated New Year's wish and a few lines to let you know that I am still in California. I have not received any word from you since the last letter. I hope you are well and that all is going well.

Turn my regards to your family and remember me when you see them.

Sincerely yours,

January 7, 1981

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60607
1126 EAST 31ST STREET
COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL THOUGHT
THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
Henry, I should have gone to Florence last week. I shall have to go there this summer, and then I can take the course at the University. I hope you are well, and that you are having a good time.

Henry

June 18, 1917

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]
I'm delighted by your comments on the Barcarol stuff as being drama-like. Right now I'm working on some choruses and hope that eventually the whole thing may be sort of like a Speech Cantata or something. In general, the cycles going well -- I have 30 poems in the volume and 70 or more since, so the whole thing's getting pretty sizeable. Anyway, I hope you'll like them.

All the best,

[Signature]

P.S. as to middle age -- we are settling into it worse than anyone you've met in years!
As always,

and yes, the man in the macintosh is not Mr. Duffey, but Mr. Mc-act.

witting, he is nobody at all! All his self is supplanted by the ahematic says to one of his essayists, the writer is nobody at labor of it, and all the time it takes away from my article!

It is, of course, possible that will wear you out, the sheer fighting will.

Notable, too, that all of Knossy's "disciples," if you these books are out of print. I can't imagine that this will write up that way. It seems, one way or another.

the Klutzy himself and he sounded very much alone. Well, we all progress of logical thinking. He wrote me some little time before these letters. So he wrote prose that would send one scurrying were enough to place an enormous barrier between us. But on the that small difference in age—about 8 years or so, as I recall—always liked Seymour, despite his desperate need to be helped,

It is somehow as if Intelligence has failed them.

It is amazing how many people (are?) like that. And to write essays in an easily collection from Dutton—and I

No, I never knew Knossy, but your mentioning him sent me back

II Jan. '92