

Mark Twain Circular

James Wharton Leonard, Editor

The Mark Twain Circular, newsletter of the Mark Twain Circle of America, was launched in January 1987, immediately following the founding of the Mark Twain Circle by a group of Twain scholars attending the December 1986 Modern Language Association annual convention, and has been published continuously since then. Recent editors include Chad Rohman (Dominican University), who began editing the Circular with the Fall 2008 issue and continued through Spring 2013, and Joseph Csicsila (Eastern Michigan University), who edited the Fall 2013 through Fall 2018 issues. The current editor, James Wharton Leonard (The Citadel), assumed that responsibility with the Spring 2019 issue. The Circular is published, electronically, twice per year (in June and November), and is transmitted by the editor to members of the Mark Twain Circle—who number about 200, distributed over 40 states and 11 countries. The Mark Twain Circular includes news of Mark Twain events and scholarship, calls for papers, short biographical articles and critical commentaries, interviews with Mark Twain scholars, and current bibliography.

Links for the complete archives of the Circular (not including the current issue) are provided below. (Thanks to Jerry Kerkmeyer for his scans of the 1987-1991 volumes.)
